

BAKING POWDER.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

Made from Grace Cream Tartar. No other preparation makes such light, airy bread, or delicious pastries. Can be used by dropping without fear. Sold only in cases, by all grocers.

YAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

DRY GOODS.

CLEVELAND

HOSIERY!

We open to-day a full stock of these celebrated.

ALL WOOL HOSE

In all sizes. Call at once if you wish any. Another invoice.

Cloaks, Jackets and Dolmans

AT OUR

Popular Low Prices.

To close the remainder of these goods.

3 and 4 Button Kid Gloves.

We will sell them at 45 cents. Sizes 5 1/2 to 6 1/2.

JOHN EMSHEIMER,

Eleventh St., Near Second Ward Market.

SILKS AND CLOAKS

SPECIAL SALE OF

SILKS

AND

SILK GOODS.

Cloaks and Dolmans,

Walking Jackets

PALETOTS

THIS WEEK.

I. BLUM & BRO.

Special Dealers in Silks and Manufacturers of Cloaks.

DENTISTRY.—To those that desire to have their natural teeth we would say that we are now better prepared than ever before to enable them to do so. By the use of our new and improved Gold Fillings, with more care and skill than ever before, we are enabled to fill any cavity or elsewhere, without the aid of the Electric Pliers. What we say we can prove to you. Call on us at 1143 Market St., Wheeling, W. Va.

The Intelligencer.

Office: Nos. 25 and 27 Fourteenth Street.

New Advertisements.

Torchlight Procession. Cash Bargains—Stanton & Davenport. Cashmere—Marshall, Kennedy & Blake. Seal Skin Cloaks. Wanted—Coal Miners. Wanted—Situations. Wanted—A Dwelling. Potatoes, Cabbage, &c.—T. A. Morris & Co.

ATTENTION HAIRERS!—Another lot (1000) Broken Calf Springs just received.

JACOB W. BRUBB, Jeweler.

Thermometer Record.—The following shows the range of the thermometer, as observed at Schnepf's drug store, Opera House corner yesterday:

1879. 7 A. M. 33 P. M. 7 P. M. 17 A. M. 30 P. M. 7 P. M. 25

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 21.—For the Ohio Valley and Tennessee, clear or partly cloudy weather, variable shifting to colder northwest winds, in the Ohio Valley stationary or higher barometer.

MUTTON BROTH SOUP for Merchants Lunch this morning at the New Melrose House Sample Rooms.

STRANGERS and visitors to the city are invited to examine our stock of Dress Goods and Silks, the largest in the State.

I. BLUM & BRO.

DAILY ADDITIONS.—We are adding daily handsome styles of Ulsters and Walking Coats. Ladies especially invited to look over our immense display this season.

I. BLUM & BRO.

Joined the Bachelors.—Our young friend Wm. A. Heinberger joined the bachelors on Wednesday evening, having been married to Miss C. Zimmer, the youngest daughter of Mrs. C. Zimmer, at her residence on Market street, and not at the residence of Rev. Mr. Barnitz, as the Register stated yesterday. A very pleasant company of about twenty-five friends had been invited to witness the nuptials and partake of the hospitality of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. B. Barnitz of the English Lutheran Church according to the liturgical form of that denomination. The bride was elegantly attired and everything in connection with the happy affair was in accordance with the good taste of this one of our oldest families. Refreshments were furnished by Zinn and were, of course, superb. With many congratulations and well wishes for a long and happy life, the couple left on the eleven o'clock train for a tour of several weeks in the West. We join their many friends in wishing them a delightful trip and safe return.

Selling of musical instruments, at Sheib's.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Brief Note and Comment on Current City Events.

CIDER IS CHEAP.
Look out for pick-pockets at the circus to-day.

THE NEW TOWNSHIP at the gas works are nearly completed.

OUR MARRIAGE LICENSE was issued yesterday by Clerk Hook.

A LITTLE SON of Capt. S. L. Brice is very sick with diphtheria.

THE NEW GAS HOLDERS will be completed within the next fortnight.

THE HAY MARKET is booming, and prices are pleasing to the farmers.

THE TIPPETZ EMBROIDERY was all the talk on the streets yesterday.

SEVERAL CASES of scarlet fever are reported from North Wheeling.

JACOB KIMPLER, Esq., will address the Republican meeting at Valley Grove to-morrow evening.

IT IS FUNNY how few people have sense enough to walk on the right side of the suspension bridge.

THE PAXTON FOUNTAIN has been treated to a coat of red paint all over, and is now as pretty as a brick pile.

TWO DEBTS of trust were admitted to record in the office of the clerk of the County Court yesterday.

MYERS' BAND will play to-night for the twenty-third anniversary of the Monocor Singing Society at Germania Hall.

THERE WILL be a farewell missionary meeting to-night on the occasion of the departure of Drs. Jas. Thornburn and J. S. Stone to India.

THE LINDSEY INSTITUTE has been re-opened and also the enclosure around it, and the premises now present a very tasteful appearance.

WE NOTICED a large quantity of wheat at the B. & O. depot yesterday, which was being shipped to Locust Point, Baltimore, thence to Europe.

THERE WILL be a special meeting of the First Ward Gardell and Arthur Club at their club room on Friday evening. Let every member be present.

THE REPUBLICAN COUNSELLING EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE of the Eighth ward will meet to-night at Westwood Hall. Every member is earnestly requested to be present.

MR. JAMES GEAR, of North Wheeling, who will be buried this afternoon, was one of our oldest citizens and was an employee of Sweeney's for a great number of years.

MARY ZIMMERMAN, a notorious character, was arrested at a late hour last night by Officer Shortt for drunkenness. Mary was served two terms in jail on a similar charge.

WHEELING is to have the grandest Republican demonstration next Saturday night they have ever had. Bellaire will turn out her forces to assist in it—Independent.

THE TRAIN leaving Wheeling at 5:30 on the Hempfield last evening, was delayed at Elm Grove till 10:45 last night by the "spreading" of the track, letting the wheels of the engine and coaches down the rails.

UNCLE JOHN BONOMO is leaving, he says. "The Fourth Ward Democrats unanimously excluded Mike Behm, who worked again me in the ward for Commissioner last week. I didn't ask them to, but they did it all same."

THERE IS not an idle wheel in Bellaire this week. Since the result of the election every industry in the city has started up with renewed vigor, and orders are coming in more rapidly than for some time past. —Bellaire Independent.

THE HARMONIE-MUNICHER opened the season last night by a ball at their headquarters, Franzheim's Hall. Main street. There were rather a number present in attendance, most of them being the unmarried members. Vieweg's orchestra furnished the music.

A YOUNG lad whose name we could not learn, but who says he is the grand son of Simon Beer, the well known grocer, was caught on a train en route to New York yesterday evening. The boy is a bright young fellow about twelve years of age. He stated that he ran off once and had a highly delightful visit in New York.

A MULE belonging to the Begg's Iron Mining Company attempted to kick a locomotive off of the track of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad yesterday, and only the size of the engine prevented the accomplishment of the feat, but it failed and had its engine of destruction.

A FIRE was discovered yesterday morning in the one story building, 1717 Jacob street, occupied by Joseph E. Spencer as a tinshop, but was extinguished before much damage was done to the building or stock. The fire originated in a red hot stove, which had been set too close a wood partition. The building is owned by Otto Hess.

W. M. MILLER and a young man named Atwell, residents of the Independent Republic, had a political dispute yesterday afternoon, and ended up by going to Marshall county and fighting it out. They went but did not fight according to the rules of the prize ring. On the contrary, they went into it, three stones and "sich" at each other, and after the battle was over Miller was wounded in the head, and Atwell and other parties, while Atwell has a gash in his head and other trophies of the conflict.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPH.—Dr. J. A. Surgenon, junior member of the firm of Surgenon & Son, dentists, is out again after having been confined to the house for several weeks with typhoid fever.

MISS LYLIA KAY, of Manchester, England, was the family of her relative, Dr. G. L. Jepson, on Twelfth street. Dr. W. Atkinson is at home from the interior.

A PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Views of a Citizen of Wheeling Upon the Necessity of One.

From Mr. Ed. Larkin, of this city, we have obtained the following memorial, which was sent to him by the subscriber for the purpose of submitting it to Council and asking that body to take action upon it. The paper in the abstract is very good, and we will not attempt to anticipate the action of Council in the matter, but predict that twenty years from now when the old papers are being arranged in the Clerk's office, in a new city building, he will find these papers. Upon one will be found this superscription, "Proposition of the Directors of the Northwestern Virginia Agricultural Association to sell to the city of Wheeling the Fair Grounds for a Public Park, and upon the other page will be found this, "Public Library project of O. W. Russell, Esq., and upon both of these papers will be found the sentence of death in these words, "received and filed."

To the Honorable Members of the Council of the City of Wheeling:

The undersigned, a citizen of Wheeling now residing in the National Capitol, desires, by way of a memorial, to ask of you the establishment of a public library in our municipality. In so doing he believes he anticipates the wishes of those who represent by whom the city is governed, and who are not to be deceived, and he does not believe, but knows, that their interests would be furthered by the adoption of his suggestion.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

It is known to you all that a library maintained by private citizens, after existing many years in your midst, has proved a failure. Through what particular cause it reached its demise, your memorialist knows not; but having been a freeholder and a citizen of some training in one of the great libraries of the world, he thinks he can understand what was necessary to make it a success. A wise and energetic manager, capable of feeling the pulse of the community, and of securing for mental improvement and literary recreation may exist among our fellow-citizens; who knew by experience or a sort of instinct what would please their fellow-citizens, and who would be willing to devote their means to the purchase of the few books that create sensations in the reading world during a twelvemonth, would certainly be a great benefit to the community.

THE "ELECTORAL COMMISSION."

Progress of the Official Census of the Votes Cast in Ohio County.

The Commissioners of Election Returns, whose duty it is to audit the returns of the recent election in this county, continued their session yesterday, the entire day being spent upon the review of the ballot cast in Madison district. Below we print a tabular statement of the result. In the first column is given the official vote cast for the respective candidates, and in the second the figures furnished by the Local Inspectors of Elections, and heretofore published in the INTELLIGENCER:

LEGISLATIVE VOTE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

FOR JUSTICE.

A ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE.

A Man Claims to be the